CABLEGRAMS.

The Continued Shipments of Specie From Europe to the United States.

Disorderly and Riotous Home Rule Demonstration at Limerick.

GREAT BRITAIN.

London, Sept. 1.—Nine English pedestrians leave Saturday for the United States.

FINANCIAL.

The Financier says it is understood that £176,111 worth of bar gold due from the east will go to meet the American. One hundred thousand pounds brought by the steamer Para last week has already been disposed of for America. One hundred and eighty thousand pounds are due here from the east on the 28th inst. As these amounts are all that are in transit from the east. The whole of whatever demand there may be from the United States will show on the stock held by the Bank of England unless remittances from France come to our aid.

LABOR.

The reduction of wages by the Staffordshire earthenware and china makers is partly attributed to the American protective duties. The employers desire to return to the scale of wages paid in 1871. Five thousand workmen will be affected.

The proprietors of the Burnley coal fields give notice of a reduction in price of coal and wages.

Thomas W. Booke & Co., sheet iron and tin plate works near Cardif, in constant operation since 1740, were closed Saturday, by order of the principal liquidator of the England and south Wales District Bank, and 1,500 workers were paid off. Three villages had grown up around the works, the inhabitants consisting solely of working people and their families, and these, numbering 6,000, are now destitute.

OFF FOR AMERICA.

Another party of farmers, numbering about twenty, left Liverpool, Saturday, for America.

RIOTOUS HOME RULEERS.

Charles Stewart Parnell, home rule member of the house of commons for Meath, addressed a very disorderly mob of from 10,000 to 20,000 persons, in Limerick, on Saturday, upon the land question. He advised that farmers combine and pay no rent till they got a reduction. The crowd applauded the address and shouted in favor of shooting landlords and agents. The platform was finally stormed, and much crushing and fighting ensued.

VICTIMS OF THE FAMINE.

Calcutta, Sept. 1.—Over 6,100 people are still employed on the relief works in Bombay or receiving gratuities rations.

FRANCE.

SPAINS EX-QUEEN AND FUTURE QUEEN.

London, Sept. 1.—A Spanish correspondent of the Standard, telegraphs that the Archduchess Marie has arrived there, and that she has been visited by ex-Queen Isabella. A Paris dispatch of the Daily News, reports that the Archduchess Marie has invited ex-Queen Isabella to her wedding, and Isabella has accepted the invitation.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

The Conkling Scandal Against Mrs. Sprague and Children Flees from Canochet.

Death of Another Victim of the Sunday Tragedy at Gomersville.

THE SPRAGUE SCANDAL.

Narragansett Pier, Sept. 1.—Mrs. Kate Sprague escaped from Conochet Saturday afternoon with her three children and part of her baggage. She has been kept by her husband under the closest surveillance since the scandal exploded, and could see no one and receive no letters except through him. Her escape was effected by strategy. Sprague will probably follow her and try to regain the children. No doubt is now entertained that a divorce suit will follow at once.

THE CONNERSVILLE TRAGEDY.

(Special Telegram to the SENTINEL.) Connerville, Sept. 1.—The city is terribly agitated over the double tragedy of yesterday. The crowd which attacked the Morgan den with the intention of tearing down the house and mobbing the inmates was led by a man named Dennis of Muncie. Near the door they were met by Chas. Christian, of Richmond, at least that is the name reported, who attempted expostulation and finding that of no avail, wrested a revolver away from Dennis, who was threatening to shoot, and dealt him a blow which laid him at his feet. Christian then started to flee, all the time threatening to kill the first man who halted him, and as he was known to be a rough party in a fracas he met with little opposition until confronted by Capt. Ben Johnson, who had been called upon to assist in his arrest. Capt. Johnson caught him first, and the weapon was turned aside, but before he could be secured Christian knocked down four men, and probably might have disabled more had not Johnson used his mace. He was finally overpowered and locked up.

Dennis, who was struck by Christian, died within two hours, and this incensed the fury of his friends and those of Carroll, that shortly after dusk they razed the Morgan ranch to the ground. The inmates having timely warning, escaped. This den has been a blot upon the name and fame of Cambridge City for several years, and no less than five murders are reported to have occurred within its walls. It was here that Benson was dragged and robbed about eighteen months ago, in retaliation for which the citizens pulled the house down. But Morgans, having the daring and audacity of the devil, rebuilt and again commenced their infernal traffic. The tragedy of yesterday, however, is the last straw upon the back of the camel, and the temper of that community will never again tolerate their presence.

A BODY FOUND.

New York, Sept. 1.—The body of a boy has been picked up in the North River, with his hands and feet securely bound.

PHILLEY AND IMMEL.

Two Bummers Have a Midnight Rumpus.

Last night at about 12 o'clock M. S. Philley, who rooms in the Central Hotel building, was awakened by loud thumping on the door. Upon opening it he found Henry Immel, the land lord, who demanded of Philley the amount of rent due him. They had some words, when Immel struck Philley on the shoulder with a light earthen pitcher which he had in his hand, breaking it, and several of the sharp pliers penetrating his shoulder and cutting it very severely. Philley bled profusely and was obliged to call Dr. H. S. Myers, who dressed his wounds. In the meantime Philley had jammed Immel against the side of the house and scratched his forehead. As soon as Immel learned that Philley was hurt, too, tied up his head to make it appear as though he was badly injured by Philley. Immel was arrested, but as Philley and Immel were soon on intimate terms this morning, it is supposed the matter has been amicably settled.

JOHNНИ'S JOKE.

How One of the Engine House Boys Got Married on the Fly.

Johnny Schroeder, of the engine house, has got the hags on all the boys this time sure. On the 17th of last July he, accompanied by Miss Ella Van Alstine, of this city, left ostensibly to go to Rome City for a day's recreation. Instead they went right through to Sturgis, Mich., where they were married. They returned to Rome City on the next train, spent a couple of hours there and came back to Fort Wayne the same evening.

No one has suspected them of being married, and no one knew it except a few of their relatives until last Saturday, when it became generally known. Johnny says the only object he had in secrecy was to steal a march on the boys, who had been blowing what a grand racket they would give him when he jumped off the bridge. Mark one for Schrader.

The iron manufacturers of this city have been so overjoyed at the sudden rise and great demand for iron, that like everybody else, they lost their head, for a few days, but as the sober second thought comes to them, they are disposed to cry
but to any further boom and hold prices, as they are rather than crowd for a further rise. There is wisdom in this, and the reasons are obvious. Let well enough alone will answer the iron interest as well as any other.

The following is the sentence in KALLOCH's speech which led to his shooting by DE YOUNG:

He (DE YOUNG) is a bastard, belched out from the belly of a w-o, who, by reason of her occupation, did not know the father of her own brat, that was nurtured in the lap of prostitution and trained as a pimp to his own sisters.

It is not to be supposed that, even if KALLOCH should die, a jury could be obtained who would convict DE YOUNG of shooting him, after the utterance of the above language before an audience of 10,000 people.

The consumption of water at Grand Rapids, during July was 38,000,000 gallons, an increase of 25 percent over the corresponding month of last year, which was also an increase of 26 percent over the consumption of the corresponding month of the previous year. If there is a similar increase in the consumption next year, the supply will run short and the officials are already looking about for some other source. It is of the utmost importance that a source of supply shall be adopted for this city which will be ample, beyond any contingency, for the demands of the city for many years to come.

The New York Advertiser and Inter-Ocean
are running JEFF DAVIS for United States senator from Mississippi.
They are not satisfied with KEY in the cabinet. Guerrilla Mosby in the diplomatic service, and T. C. Lovett in the government office. The Advertiser and Inter-Ocean are desperate for a little political ammunition.—Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Alm-JEFF high-toned enough for the SENATE? Is he not a representative democrat? Would he not admirably represent a party and state that murders men for their political opinions, and shoots children who dare throw their arms about their dying fathers, as in the case of Judge CHISHOLM? What is the matter with JEFF?
that he does not suit the SENTINEL?—Omego Inter-Ocean.

No, JEFF DAVIS does not suit the SENTEINEL, and this paper doesn't think he ought to be elected to the United States senate. He is not a representative democrat any more than Guerrilla Mosby is. The New York
Tribune and the Chicago Inter-Ocean
are determined to make him senator, but we hardly believe that the people of Mississippi will accept the choice of their worst enemies.

NEWS NOTES.

Hon. John Welsh arrived in New York yesterday.

Mrs. Susan Culver, aged ninety-five years, died at Upper Sandusky, O., on Saturday.

N. Schmidt & Co., merchants at Ann Arbor, have failed. Liabilities, $25,000; assets, $20,000.

A number of United States officials are under arrest at Houston, Tex., for violation of the quarantine laws.

The treasury department has placed $15,000,000 in gold to the credit of the assay office, to be used in payment for foreign gold coin and gold bars now being received in payment of balances due this country.

One of the features of the Cincinnati industrial exposition will be a grand firemen's tournament, open to the United States and Canada. Entries can be made by addressing W. Louis Gilbert, secretary of the society.

The treasury of the United States has sent out checks for quarterly interest on the registry of the 44 percent loan, which falls due September 1st. The number of checks is 11,100, representing $2,812,600. The amount of 44 percents outstanding is $50,000.

The name of the prominent insurance company which did not know that its former president had misappropriated nearly $50,000 of its funds till Supt. Shuyll apprised it of the fact, proves to be the Nickerbocker, the oldest company in the United States. The secretary makes the curious statement that the company decided to say nothing about the affair as to whether the deficiency had been made good or not.

The Pennsylvania Rolling Mill Company's works are boring an artesian well, which it is intended shall be from 2,- 000 to 2,500 feet in depth. The ostendsible purpose is to supply fresh water to the employees, but the general impression is that the work is undertaken in the hope that oil may be found, and plenty of sanguine Patersonians expect to see the Passaic oil regions. Oil has been found exuding from the fissures in the rocks in several places in the vicinity.

The new college of Notre Dame,
South Bend, is rapidly being completed and will be ready for occupancy this week. The new university is far ahead of the one burned, in beauty as well as convenience.

The Tribune's Washington special says Hon. E. B. Washburne later received a letter from Gen. Grant, saying that those who expect him, upon his return to this country, to enter in to the presidential campaign would be disappointed. He does not conceive of any possible circumstances which could induce him to become a candidate for another term, but adds that if at any time the republican party should need him for any purpose, he will not fail to respond. The Sun's Washington special says Col. Mosby in Hong Kong, and writes to friend in Washington that all this talk about Grant's not desiring or not accepting possible presidential nomination is poppycock. Grant will run, Mosby predicts, and he thinks he will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

A dispatch from Warsaw states that the czar arrived there in safety, accompanied by his staff last night. The city was brilliantly illuminated. There was every appearance of popular enthusiasm, but it is said that the illuminations were prepared in compliance with the specific orders of the authorities, and that the crowds in the streets who welcomed the czar with cheers were composed strictly of persons who were employed for this purpose.

Capt. Wm. H. Place, who spent fifteen years in the capacity of public that country. According to the captain's statement there is water communication at present from the Gulf of Mexico to within five miles of the Pacific Ocean. The work of making a canal over this short span he says presents no intricate engineering problem and labor is plenty on the Pacific coast.

The Pittsburgh Post has this to say editorially of the iron market:

The iron manufacturers of this city have been so overjoyed at the sudden rise and great demand for iron, that like everybody else, they lost their head for a few days, but as the sober second thought comes to them, they are disposed to cry half to any further boom and hold prices as they are rather than crowd for a further rise. There is wisdom in this, and the reasons are obvious. Let well enough alone will answer the iron interest as well as any other.

The following is the sentence in KALLOCH's speech which led to his shooting by DE YOUNG:

He (Dr. Young) is a bastard, belched forth from the belly of a w-o-wo, who, by reason of her occupation, did not know the father of her own brat, that was nurtured in the lap of prostitution and trained as a pimp to his own sisters.

It is not to be supposed that, even if KALLOCH should die, a jury could be obtained who would convict DE YOUNG of shooting him, after the utterance of the above language before an audience of 10,000 people.

The consumption of water at Grand Rapids during July was 38,000,000 gallons, an increase of 25 percent over the corresponding month of last year, which was also an increase of 25 percent over the consumption of the corresponding month of the previous year. If there is a similar increase in the consumption next year, the supply will run short and the officials are already looking about for some other source. It is of the utmost importance that a source of supply shall be adopted for this city which will be ample, beyond any contingency, for the demands of the city for many years to come.

The New York Tribune and Chicago Inter-Ocean are running JEFF DAVIS for United States Senator from Mississippi. They are supported by KELLY, cabinet, Guerrilla Mosby in the diplomatic service, and LONGSTREET in a fat government office. The Tribune and Inter-Ocean are for a little political ammunition.—Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Ain't JEFF high-toned enough for the SENTINEL? Is he not a representative democrat? Would he not admirably represent a party and state that murders men for their political opinions, and shoots children who dare throw their arms about their dying fathers, as in the case of Judge CHISHOLM? What is the matter with JEFF that he does not suit the SENTINEL?—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

No, JEFF DAVIS does not suit the SENTINEL, and this paper doesn't think he ought to be elected to the United States senate. He is not a representative democrat any more than Guerrilla Mosby is. The New York Tribune and the Chicago Inter-Ocean are determined to make him senator, but we hardly believe that the people of Mississippi will accept the choice of their worst enemies.

Wanesville, O., Aug. 30.—Last night while two young men named Yager and Cox, of Avon, in this county, were returning home on horseback from a dance, young Cox was thrown from his horse and instantly killed.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 31.—At 10 o'clock this morning a fire destroyed the building occupied by the Lake Superior Paint Company. Loss on building and machinery, $12,500; on stock, $5,000. Insured for $11,000. Cause of fire unknown.

Pottsville, Aug. 31.—At 6 o'clock this evening Henry Christian, keeper of a disreputable house, while crazed with drink, shot his wife, inflicting a fatal wound. Christian afterwards fled to a neighboring town, where he was captured by the police while running away from the house. The place he is in jail awaiting his trial, which is set for Monday.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 31.—About 6 o'clock this afternoon Lee H. Dollis, a well known young man of this city, committed suicide at the Galt House, by cutting his throat with a pocket-knife. He is the son of a wealthy steamboatman, who died here several years ago. No cause for this act can be given, as he had an ample income and was perfectly sober.

St. Louis, Aug. 31.—At an early hour this morning Will Ward shot Annie Lewis, a girl of fourteen, because she refused to leave her mother's home and go to a beer saloon with him. The ball passed through the left side, inflicting a wound which terminated fatally this evening. Ward was captured by the police while running away from the house. The parties colored. A previous difficulty had occurred between them on account of the girl's refusal to marry Ward.

Booneville, Mo., Aug. 31.—On Friday night a body of unknown men went to the cabin of a negro named Cason, five miles from here, called him out and riddled him with bullets. He was a rough character, kept a sort of low gambling den, and made himself generally disagreeable to his neighbors. The immediate cause of the affair was that Cason went to the house of a neighbor during his absence, insulted and slapped his wife and otherwise abused her, which so enraged the mob that they stoned away the house. The woman was completely destroyed.

Immediately after the shooting, this afternoon a mob gathered around the house when an unknown man appeared at the door with a revolver and threatened to kill "any d—n man who tried to enter." A man named Dennis pushed forward and was struck on the head with a revolver by a man in the doorway. Dennis is now in a critical condition with but slight hopes of his recovery. Mrs. Morgan's little daughter saved five trunks and a sewing machine, but the mob prevented her taking anything more.

The mob was orderly with the exception of interfering with the firemen. Morgan is safe at large. He was "runner" for the house.

LATER.

Cambridge City, Aug. 30, 10:30 p.m.—An alarm of fire was sent in about an hour ago from the barn where Morgan was supposed to be concealed. While the engines were quenching the flames, a crowd went to the Morgan ranch, and after thoroughly saturating the building with coal oil, set fire to it. The engines quickly arrived at the spot, but the horses were frightened by the mob, and when the firemen finally began to pour water on the fire the hose was cut. The cut hose was replaced, but the fire had gained great headway, and when the firemen again attacked the flames they were jostled away. The house was completely destroyed.

In the early hours of Saturday morning, Dennis, who had been shot in the head, was brought to the hospital, where he died.

St. Louis, Aug. 31.—At an early hour this morning Will Ward shot Annie Lewis, a girl of fourteen, because she refused to leave her mother's home and go to a beer saloon with him. The ball passed through the left side, inflicting a wound which terminated fatally this evening. Ward was captured by the police while running away from the house. The parties colored. A previous difficulty had occurred between them on account of the girl's refusal to marry Ward.

Booneville, Mo., Aug. 31.—On Friday night a body of unknown men went to the cabin of a negro named Cason, five miles from here, called him out and riddled him with bullets. He was a rough character, kept a sort of low gambling den, and made himself generally disagreeable to his neighbors. The immediate cause of the affair was that Cason went to the house of a neighbor during his absence, insulted and slapped his wife and otherwise abused her, which so enraged the mob that they stoned away the house. The woman was completely destroyed.

Immediately after the shooting, this afternoon a mob gathered around the house when an unknown man appeared at the door with a revolver and threatened to kill "any d—n man who tried to enter."

A man named Dennis pushed forward and was struck on the head with a revolver by a man in the doorway. Dennis is now in a critical condition with but slight hopes of his recovery. Mrs. Morgan's little daughter saved five trunks and a sewing machine, but the mob prevented her taking anything more.

The mob was orderly with the exception of interfering with the firemen.

Morgan is safe at large. He was "runner" for the house.

LATER.

Cambridge City, Aug. 30, 10:30 p.m.—An alarm of fire was sent in about an hour ago from the barn where Morgan was supposed to be concealed. While the engines were quenching the flames, a crowd went to the Morgan ranch, and after thoroughly saturating the building with coal oil, set fire to it. The engines quickly arrived at the spot, but the horses were frightened by the mob, and when the firemen finally began to pour water on the fire the hose was cut. The cut hose was replaced, but the fire had gained great headway, and when the firemen again attacked the flames they were jostled away. The house was completely destroyed.

The El River road passes into the hands of the Wabash to-day. The following joint notice, dated September 1st, has just been issued by A. L. Hopkins, vice president of the Wabash and F. J. Hecker, superintendent of the El River Railroad:

Brother is hereby given that the Wabash Railway Company has acquired, by lease, and has thus taken possession of the El River road, its equipments and branch hereafter operated road as a branch of the Wabash Railway.

All accounts pertaining to September 1st, 1879, will be settled with the El River Railroad prior to September 1st, 1879, and any remaining account will be settled from and after September 1st, 1879, will be settled by the Wabash Railway Company.

Officers and agents of other roads will please address their reports and communications accordingly.

The El River will, for the present at least, form a part of Supt. Wade's division, and the dispatching of trains will be done from the Wabash office in this city.

A BRAVE FIREMAN.

The Pittsburgh road employs a noble lot of men. The Pittsburgh Leader gives the following account of a brave action by a Pittsburgh fireman:

This morning as the Alliance accommodation train, No. 14, was approaching the outer depot, on the Pittsburgh Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, a little child was seen standing on the track, quietly watching the passing of the train.

The child was in the bushes instantly, but the train was so near the little one that he could not stop his engine in time to prevent a terrible accident. The fireman, George Dester, from his window, saw the perilous position of the child, and, without pausing, ran across the pathway, jumped upon the cow-catcher, grasped the child and saved his life. It was a brave act, and Mr. Dester will be known from this time forth as the gallant and courageous fireman who endangered his own life to save an innocent individual. He deserves all praise for his heroic act.

NOTES.

Supt. Wade left for Toledo this morning.

The Wabash took possession of the El River road to-day.

The Pittsburgh is painting its caboose a beautiful crimson.

The excursion train was stopped yesterday to give four boys a chance to walk. They would not pay their fare.

Engineer Robinson, of the Wabash, with engine No. 62, brought in a train consisting of sixty-nine cars, from Toledo, last night.

The Wabash Company will put in an engine to pump water for the tank at Colburn, and thus supplant the old fashioned, cruel horse-power. The brick are on the ground to build the engine house.

On Saturday 300 truckmen in the employ of the Pittsburgh Railroad Company at Chicago, struck for $1.25 a day. They had been receiving $1 a day. The local agent refused their demand and they stopped work in a body. The company has decided to pay the truckmen $1.15 per day, and a full force will probably be engaged to-day at that figure.

BREVITIES.

State Treasurer Fleming is in town. The burglars are prowling around again.

Dr. Barnum is on the streets once more.

O. N. Hinkle left for the west last night.

Miss Louise Chevilon, of Monroe street, is ill.

A new saloon was opened in Monroeville to-day.

The Methodist college was connected by telephone to-day.

Gottlieb F. Meyer left this morning for New York on business.

Louis Steng has returned from a three months' visit to New York.

An excursion to Petoskey Tuesday of next week. Look out for participants.

Miss Addie Kollmann, of New York city, is visiting relatives in the city.

John K. Lintz, who arrived in the city Friday, left for St. Louis this morning.

Thomas Hoover, an old settler of Maumee township, was buried last Thursday.

The Fort Wayne Medical College will open clinical lectures about September 15th.

Gord Simons has gone east to have his eyes treated. He is accompanied by Clark Perry.

Dr. Talbot and his daughter, Mrs. J. Litter, are visiting friends at Warsaw and Elkhart.

S. S. Smick was at the Galt House and J. I. White at the Grand Hotel, Cincinnati, on Saturday.

James Quinn, living on Water street, fell out of a wagon last Friday and broke his arm. He is now doing very well.

Geo. Fowler, Sid Lombard, two shot guns, a couple of dogs and a bottle or two of—artesian water have gone north.

Two men named Plain and Rosebell had a desperate fight at the French Brewery yesterday afternoon in which Rosebell was badly hurt by a kick.

Miss Lottie Harper, of this city, was married at No. 2,303 Thompson street, Philadelphia, last Wednesday night to Mr. Fred M. Bush, of that place, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. E. A. Foggo, rector of Christ Church. The attendants were Mr. Charles Richardson and Miss Kate Bush. The happy couple are expected to reach this city to-morrow on their wedding tour.

The father of Prof. Albro, of the Methodist College, died yesterday morning, and was buried to-day at 3 o'clock.

The quiet nuns of Baker street are agitated over some strange moonlight antics on the front stoop of a boarding house (?).

John Schroeder is fitting up the rooms lately occupied by Robert Stratton as a law office. John will hereafter roost on his own fig tree.

Miss Laura Caldwell, of Connersville, who is visiting with Miss Mollie Houser, on Griffith street, is lying very low with typhoid fever.

The Wayne Street M. E. Church social will be held at the residence of Sam'l Cartwright, seven miles west of the city, next Thursday evening.

Miss Gertrude Donnelly, who has been spending the summer season with her niece, Mrs. S. A. Grabel, leaves for her home at Wooster, O., to-morrow morning.

Pat Conover and wife have gone to Cincinnati. The visit is purely on business. He is going to make a loan to the Enquirer of $300,000 to pay off their legal suit which aggregate that amount.

The agricultural society met on Saturday afternoon, and from the statements of the officers everything looks very favorable for the fair. The sale of privileges was a success, about $800 being obtained. All bids for the grand stand and the beer privileges were refused, not being high enough. Among the purchasers of privileges were the Lutheran, Third Street M. E., Baptist and Congregationalist churches, the Home for the Friendless, Dan Harmon, etc.

On Saturday evening Wm. Shryock, who is studying dentistry with Dr. Brown, went to Liggett's stable on Harrison street and got H. N. Ward's horse, and in company with Miss Ward started to visit his (Shryock's) father, living several miles north of Huntertown. They left the city about 7 o'clock and arrived there about 10 o'clock. Shortly after their arrival the horse showed unmistakable signs of exhaustion and in less than a half hour was dead. The young man says he did not drive the horse very hard, and don't know why he should turn up his toes in such a promiscuous manner. The horse was a very valuable one to Mr. Ward, and could probably not have been bought for $300.

The Picnic at Zollinger's Grove Yesterday a Grand Success.

The Arions excursion to Zollinger's Grove yesterday was a success. The train left the south depot at about half-past one, and consisted of three coaches packed full. There were about 225 passengers on board. Upon the arrival at the grounds every excursionist made a dead break for the beer stand, and for the next twenty minutes nothing could be heard excepting the clinking of glasses and the ominous gurgle of beer as it ran down the many throats. Then Keintz's Band enlivened the occasion by some splendid music, after which the Steingebund or Männerchor of the Arions sang several beautiful choruses. The musical part was repeated at frequent intervals during the day. In the meantime the only intermission in the flow of the Erlanger was the time occupied in tapping a fresh keg. Twenty kegs were on the ground at 2 o'clock and at half-past four it was all gone. Centlivre said if he had known the Erlanger was going to find such favor he would have sent out forty kegs.

Singing, dancing, etc., were enjoyed until half-past 5 o'clock, when everything was completely cleaned out and sold. The train backed down and a few minutes after 6 the whole party was safely landed in the city, having had a pleasant time.

AMUSEMENTS.*THE BERGERS AND SOLSMITH RUSSELL.

The Academy should be crowded to-night, when the celebrated and always popular Bergers Family will open their tour for 1879-80, with one of their refined, and in every way delightful concerts.

The company has been enlarged and improved since last year, and is now, by all odds, the strongest popular musical combination in the country. Sol Smith Russell, who is a regular genius, and an entire show in himself, is still with the company, and will present some brand new character sketches, which will doubtless confound his audience.

Singing, dancing, etc., were enjoyed until half-past 5 o'clock, when everything was completely cleaned out and sold. The train backed down and a few minutes after 6 the whole party was safely landed in the city, having had a pleasant time.

SELECT SCHOOL.*Important Notices.

Card from H. W. Bond.

Having a large stock of desirable goods on hand, I have made further reductions to close them out.

While the goods on hand are desirable and needed, they are not so frequently called for as some other articles, and in order to sell them I have, as above stated, reduced the prices far below cost, and to further facilitate their sale have added a few staple goods which I will sell at a trifling advance over cost, merely to pay part of the expense of closing out the stock.

With these additions and with the goods on hand, at reduced prices, the ladies can procure greater bargains than ever before known in this city. Examining the goods and be convinced.

Rev. J. Saunders Reed, of Indianapolis, preached to a large congregation at Trinity Church yesterday.

At the Third Street M. E. Church yesterday, Rev. Woolpert delivered a very able sermon, choosing for his text, Exodus, 13th chapter, and 14th verse. In the evening, Rev. Lindsey preached to a large audience.

At St. Mary's Church yesterday morning the anniversary of St. Rose's young ladies sodality was celebrated, about 150 young ladies partaking of holy communion in a body. At 10 o'clock Rev. Father Rademacher preached a very eloquent and interesting sermon, Rev. Father Steiner, assistant pastor, officiating at high mass. A collection for the benefit of the young ladies' sodality was taken up by Miss Hartman and Miss Nix.

A. Foster has the reputation of being one of the best tailors in the city, 82 Calhoun street.

A FEARFUL FIND.*The Dead Body of an Unknown Woman on a River Bank.*A Mysterious Case Which Should Be Investigated.

Last evening a man passing along the Maumee River banks in the vicinity of the "caves," in White's fourth addition, had his attention attracted by an offensive stench coming from a hole in the ground. Upon making an examination he found a box buried a few inches under the ground, the lid of which was partly off. Taking a stick and thrusting it into the box he succeeded in raising what looked like the skeleton of a human hand and some long hair. He at once reported it to the authorities. Captains Smith and Diehl made an investigation and found a box about three feet long and fifteen inches wide containing a part of the skeleton of a woman, the bones of the lower extremities being missing. The box emitted a very offensive odor showing that the remains had been there for some time. The identity of the body is and will probably remain a mystery, but it is supposed to be the relic of a medical job.

Old John the happy and inspiring and old familiar face of John Fitzgerald loomed up like a meteor, at the first call at police court this morning. John had been working for Anderson and would go there again if he got a chance.

"When were you here before?"

"About four weeks ago."

"About three and a half wasn't it?"

"Well, long this summer, I don't know. I'll never bother you again."

"No, I expect not; not for ten days anyhow."

James Kelly supposed he was guilty of being disorderly. He fired a chair at Officer Quillinan, and he did it for fun.

"What have you got to say?"

"Nothing at all; do just as you please."

"Well, I please to send you over for thirty days."

MacBeth was the next man on deck.

"Is this a dagger I see before me?"

"No; that's the marshal with his little gavel."

Mac is a printer. He said he met some of the boys at the Gazette office and they "budged" consequently Falker took him in on Saturday morning.

"Well, as you've been in that calaboose since Saturday morning, I guess you have been punished enough, so I will let you go."

"All right, I'm satisfied."

I Isaac Jenkinsen and John McCarron were over at the Apple Garden yesterday. On their way back they were walking along "playing" in a good humored way and when opposite Trenkler & Scherzer's jewelry store McCarthy gave Jenkinsen a push, who, stepping on the grate, slipped and fell, his head and shoulders striking the large plate glass window and breaking it. The glass was valued at $100 and was insured. It was clearly proven that it was a pure accident resulting from carelessness, but as a fine of $3 was assessed for disorderly conduct.

TELEPHONE TRICKS.*Another Edisonian Musical Exchange Between Fort Wayne and Warsaw.

Yesterday afternoon the Western Union Telephone Company connected the city offices with their Warsaw offices, and the Fort Wayneites were treated to a smell of Warsaw whiskey coming from the breath of notables in that city like Quin Hossler.

The siege was long and tedious and every one felt relieved when it was over. Tom Meegan persisted in ordering cocktails from Bob Hickman's saloon, while Conover paralyzed the whole party by his repeated efforts to sing "Elsie Dea."
